MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER OF VICTORIA

I would like to extend my congratulations to Fosters, Abbotsford Victoria, for its Stella Artois, winner of the 2007 Premier's Trophy for 'Best Victorian Beer'. This award recognises Stella Artois as the best quality premium beer produced by a Victorian-based brewer at the 2007 Australian International Beer Awards.

The international reputation of the Australian International Beer Awards has grown and it is now firmly entrenched as one of the most prestigious Awards for the brewing industry worldwide. The Awards have been instrumental in helping to promote the Australian beer industry internationally.

Since its inception in 1987, Victoria has been the home of the Australian International Beer Awards and the Victorian Government supports these Awards through the Premier's Trophy. The Premier's Trophy recognises the importance of the Victorian brewing industry and highlights new developments and initiatives in the sector. This year sees over 130 Victorian beers entered, with a record number of exhibitors competing at the event in total.

As patron of the Australian International Beer Awards, I would like to thank the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria Limited and the University of Ballarat for organising this excellent event.

Congratulations again to Fosters, Abbotsford Victoria, and I wish every success with the award-winning Stella Artois.

HON STEVE BRACKS MP
Premier of Victoria
