Upon submission of an entry the Exhibitor agrees irrevocably to be bound by all applicable regulations, rules and conditions.

2. REJECTION: The RAS may in its absolute discretion reject entries from Competitors or Exhibitors who, or whose exhibits, are or have been subject to disqualification from any Royal or other show or a breed society or similar body.

3. CHANGES: Subject to regulations in the relevant Schedule no entry may be changed by the Exhibitor after entries close unless otherwise permitted by the RAS.

4. ENTRY SUBMISSION: The entry fee set out in the Schedule shall be forwarded with each entry. Entries into the Royal Melbourne Championship Dog Show must be mailed to:

5. EXHIBITOR: All entry forms must be signed by the Exhibitor or his authorised agent. The Exhibitor is responsible for the correctness of all information on the entry form. Where an Exhibitor is less than 18 years of age, the entry form must be signed by the Exhibitor's parents or guardian.

6. RESTRICTIONS on the number of entries in any section or class may be made by the RAS.

JUDGES CRITIQUES AS PRESENTED

MR RICHARD LOPASCHUK

Thursday, 15 September 2005

Australian Silky Terrier

The breed in general was average with several good dogs. My Best of Breed dog was good with correct size and colouring, well balanced and with good movement.

Yorkshire Terrier

The breed was average with many of the dogs judged lacking the proper level topline. My Best of Breed dog was the CC Bitch who was correct in colour level topline and tail set. She was well balanced, had correct ear set and muzzle to skull proportions. She moved well coming and going and had a very free, fluid side gait.

Skye Terrier

The Skye's were very good in general with many promising young dogs. The Best of Breed male was exceptional with a long powerful head. He was very elegant and dignified exemplifying his long low profile. Had a profuse double coat, moved well with correct tail carriage.

Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier

This breed for the most part was average with many dogs with very poorly conditioned coats. My Best of Breed bitch was very correct medium sized, compact dog. She had a very good disposition, head shaped well, correct ears, body and gait. Very good breed type.

Australian Stumpy Tail Cattle Dog

I found that the dogs judged lacked proper breed type for many and not of proper proportions (square). My CC dog and bitch best fit the standard and were both well proportioned working dogs. My choice for Best of Breed was the Dog who had a much sounder, tireless movement.

Old English Sheepdog

This breed overall was exceptional and very pleasing to judge. The open classes in both sexes were excellent with dogs that could win on any given day. My choice for Best of Breed was a magnificent animal depicting true breed type. He was a strong, well boned dog with great symmetry, short compact with the dog standing lower at the shoulders than the loin. Proper ambling movement. I found that most handlers that I judged moved their dogs far too fast and it takes away the proper ambling or pacing movement for this breed.

Bullmastiff

Most dogs judged were very powerfully built showing good strength. Head varied on several with some muzzles being narrow and short. Some head proportions were not equal to the height of the dog. My Best of Breed dog was from the open class. He was mature with a very free powerful gait. He had a straight level topline, very nice head.

German Spitz (Mittel)

Both dogs in this breed were of good quality. They were compact, short coupled with a square outline. My Best of Breed dog had a good sized head, broad flat skull and wedge shaped with small triangular ears that were set on well and carried well. He had a brisk effortless movement with a clean level topline.

Lhasa Apso

The Lhasa Apso's were of very good quality. Most were young dogs but were well balanced solid dogs. The Best of Breed dog was very young had a heavy profuse coat, was very well balanced showing very good breed characteristics.

Tibetan Terrier

The breed was generally very good quality, generally square and well balanced. The one exception was a dog who was far too large for the standard. The Best of Breed dog was an exceptional dog who moved around the ring with a smooth effortless gait which never faltered. He was balanced and proportionate throughout with a profuse double, black coat.

Friday, 16 September 2005

Italian Greyhound

This breed was lacking in breed characteristics in many respects. Size was all over the map with some very large dogs being shown. Some were very lacking the rise over the loin when moving and others were very exaggerated and almost roached when moving and standing. Movement was not the high stepping free action that should be depicted. The Best of Breed dog best suited the breed characteristics.

Boxer

Boxers in general were exceptional with some very lovely entries. I did have several classes where dogs did not fit the perfect picture. Heads did not match bodies and bodies did not match heads. Overall movement was good with few moving very close or hocky in the rear or wide in front. My Best of Breed bitch was very proportionate in all respects. Very sound, medium sized, muscular with correct angles front and rear. She had a correctly proportionate, balanced head that fit the body very well. Movement was free and alive with energy. Very exceptional breed type.

Bedlington Terrier

Bedlington's were very good showing gracefulness with the gentle confidence required for the breed. My Best of Breed bitch was of moderate size with correct head structure, correct angles front and rear and correct body arch. She had the distinctive springy motion. Excellent breed type.

Manchester Terrier

Manchester's were average as a breed. They lacked the compact, elegant appearance of the breed. Most moved very stilted and lacked the free flowing, balanced gait. The slight arch over the loin was exaggerated in several and/or lacking in others both standing and moving.

Norfolk Terrier

The breed in general was very good with well balanced, proportionate dogs. The Best of Breed dog was small, compact with a lively disposition. He had a well balanced head with correct ear set, large, strong teeth. His coat was hard and wiry and in good condition. Moved very well with power and determination. Very good breed type.

Boston Terrier

The Boston's in general were lacking in several breed characteristics. Most were longer than tall not giving the square appearance and most were not level on topline when standing or moving. My CC dog was from the minor puppy class as he was very proportionate to the standard, square with level topline and square flat head. My Best of Breed bitch was well balanced and very proportionate in every respect, with a very sure footed rhythmical gait.

Chow Chow

Chows in general were well balanced compact and very dignified in appearance. One puppy was excused for trying to bite. My Best of Breed dog was elegant with a very profuse, dense, course black coat. He had the flat, broad skull with small sunken eyes, strong mouth with correct pigmentation. He moved well with correct stilted rolling gait. Handlers with this breed must move slower to give the proper movement of the animal otherwise they lose the correct stilted movement if they are flying around the ring.

Japanese Spitz

The breed was in general very good some dogs were out of condition and had very poor coats. My Best of Breed dog was very elegant with a profuse white coat, proportionate in all respects, well balanced with a lovely temperament.

Saturday, 17 September 2005

Dalmatian

The Dalmatians were wonderful with most dogs showing excellent breed type. They were well balanced, strong and active with a good demeanour. My Best of Breed dog came from the open class. He was a magnificent animal, well balanced, strong and muscular he was correct in all aspects and moved with a powerful rhythmic action. Very true breed type.

Schipperke

This breed was very good in breed type. My Best of Breed dog was small and cobby with a very sharp expression. He possessed all the breed characteristics very good breed type.

Miniature Pinscher

This breed was in general poor in quality. Dogs were too big, lacking proper hackney gait, moved wide and out at shoulders and lacked the square outline. Many were very shy and would not stand steady for examination. My Best of Breed came from junior class, a young dog that depicted the standard. He was square in outline correct head type and moved well with the true hackney gait.

West Highland White Terrier

The Westies in general were of good quality and had good breed characteristics several had off colored white coats and several were lacking undercoat. The Best of Breed dog was from the open class. He was a hardy, active dog with correct head piece with correct ear set, strong, large teeth. He had a harsh double coat with correct body proportions.

Irish Terrier

Generally the Irish Terriers were very poor quality. My Best of Breed dog was the only dog that had correct ear set and cartridge, correct head that was long and flat and narrow. He had very good breed characteristics and he came from the intermediate class.

Dandie Dinmont Terrier

Dandies were pleasing to judge as the dogs presented were all excellent quality. My Best of Breed dog was a magnificent animal exemplifying all the breed characteristics. He had a correct head piece with large intelligent eyes. His body was long with correct arch over the loin and correct tall set and carriage.

Sunday, 18 September 2005

Australian Terrier

The breed in general was very good. My Best of Breed Dog was sturdy, low-set longer than high with a strong terrier character. He had a very good head, skull and muzzle equal, with small erect ears that were used well. He had a level topline with a docked tail set on correct and carried well. Very good representative of the breed.

Border Terrier

The Border Terriers as a breed were average. Dogs were large with only a few being able to span at the withers and several had very tight skin which is unsuitable for what they were bred to do. My Best of Breed dog, from the open class best met the standard for the breed with a lovely head with a dark, keen expression. Body was spanable, loose skin had a harsh dense, double coat. He moved well coming and going and had a good side gait.

English Toy Terrier (Black and Tan)

The breed in general were well balanced, compact and cleanly built. My Best of Breed dog, from the open class had a good head piece with good erect ears carried well. He had a compact body with a slightly curving back to a low set tail. Good breed type.

German Shepherd Dog

Overall the breed was very pleasing to judge with some very good dogs. Temperaments and disposition was excellent with only two dogs being excused for not standing for examination. My Best of Breed bitch came from the Australian Bred Class. She was a lovely dog with correct balance and proportion in all respects. She moved around free and easy with correct trotting gait. Very good breed type exemplifying what the breed should look like.

Monday, 19 September 2005

Fox Terrier (Wire)

Wires in general were very good very active, lively dogs. Good hard wiry top coats on all dogs but lacking undercoat in most. Several dogs moved very choppy in the rear almost sickle hocked in motion. The Best of Breed dog was from the Australian Bred Class. He had a very typical head, flat topline of skull with no fullness of cheek. Muzzle and skull were equal. Ears folded correct and carried correct. Correct body proportions, level back muscular loin. Tail set on correct and carried correct. Moved clean coming and going with free easy side gait with well flexing hindquarters. Very good breed type.

Fox Terrier (Smooth)

Smooths were very good in general. Very active and lively with the exception of one dog who was very nervous and showed no tail. The Best of Breed bitch was a very good representative of the breed, good head piece, ears carried well and set on correct. Good angles front and rear with a deep chest short, level back. Tail was set on correct and carried correct. Gait was free and easy with a good drive coming from a well flexing rear.

Airedale Terrier

Airedales in general were good overall with mostly large, square animals. Tails on several were carried flat over back which was not pleasing even though body conformation was very good. My Best of Breed dog was large and muscular with a well balanced proportionate body. Dog moved freely with powerful strides and tail was set on correct and carried correct.

Welsh Corgi (Cardigan)

Cardigans were very good in general, sturdy, tough long dogs. The Best of Breed dog was very well balanced and proportionate in every respect. Head with foxy shape and appearance with large well placed ears. Long, low, strong, level body with correct tall set and carriage. He moved very free and easy and was very active and fluid. Very nice breed type.

Welsh Corgi (Pembroke)

The breed in general was very good in quality and type showing substance and stamina in a small, long package. The Best of Breed dog came from the open class and was a very good representative of the breed. Foxy head with slightly rounded, medium ears set correct and carried alert. He had a level topline and body of medium length. Correct angulation front and rear, with free active motion. Very good breed representative.

Great Dane

Great Danes were good with large muscular, well boned animals. Most lacked the elegant outline and grace of form which is essential in this breed. The Best of Breed dog from the Open Class exemplified the elegance and majestic, powerful, alert expression that is the correct breed type. He had almost correct head with muzzle and skull in parallel planes, equal muzzle, skull but was not completely flat. Ears were set high on skull and folded forward. He had good bone with deep body strong loin and level topline. He had good angles front and rear, tail set on correct and carried well. Good action when moving with a springy, free motion with good driving action.

Wednesday, 21 September 2005

Staffordshire Bull Terrier

This breed was absolutely fantastic. Many classes I had in the ring, first place could have gone to any of the placements. But unfortunately only one can take first place. Both my CC's were exceptional animals with gorgeous heads, strong, muscular well balanced bodies. I gave the breed to the bitch who was still moving effortlessly around the ring. She had a short, deep, broad skull with a short foreface, with good ear set. She had a close coupled body, level topline, wide in front with well muscled quarters. The breed as a whole were excellent breed specimens.

Kerry Blue Terrier

The Kerry Blue's were absolutely exquisite animals. They were well proportioned with a well developed muscular body. The Best of Breed dog was well balanced with a long, lean flat head. Short coupled body with a deep chest and level topline ending with a high set tail carried correct, free powerful movement. Very good breed type meeting the standard in all respects.

Bull Terrier (Miniature)

Miniature Bull Terriers were good quality overall but I gave Best of Breed to the junior bitch who exemplified the breed standard in every respect. She was well balance with a keen intelligent expression. She had a correct egg shaped head with small well placed ears that could have been used better. She had a well rounded body with level topline scoping slightly over loin. Short tail carried correct free well knit movement.

Bull Terrier

Bull terriers were not of good quality neither dog was balanced with that noble, courageous look. One was long legged and long bodied and the other was stocky, with shorter legs.

American Staffordshire Terrier

American Staffordshire Terriers in general were average with some dogs not having the stocky appearance. Some were long legged and some resembled Staffordshire bull terriers. The Best of Breed dog was well put together and had very good breed type. He had a deep, broad skull with pronounced cheek muscles, shorter muzzle with good ears. His body was short with a slightly sloping topline. He was well muscled in all quarters with short well set tail. He carried himself well around the ring with a nice springy motion.

Thursday, 22 September 2005

Cairn Terrier

Cairns in general were excellent in breed type, with alert agile dogs with very good natural appearance. The Best of Breed dog was very balanced and proportionate in every respect. Head was proportionate to body with correct ear placement and carried very alert. Correct angles front and rear with strong well turned stifle. Body was medium length level back, strong with correct set and carriage. He had a very free flowing stride covering ground very well. Very good breed type pleasure to judge.

Jack Russell Terrier

Jack Russell's were in general very good, strong, active small dogs. My Best of Breed bitch was well balanced with a flat skull and a wide, strong muzzle. She had a keen expression with correct ear set. Angles were correct in all quarters, with a longer body and level back. Tail was set on correct and carried well. Movement was free and springy and true coming and going. She was spanable and correct weight, many dogs judged were not spanable at withers and were over weight.

Norwich Terrier

The Norwich Terriers were average breed type in general. My Best of Breed dog was small, low, compact dog with a wedge shaped head. He had a short compact body, level topline and moved freely around the ring.

Parson Russell Terrier

The Parson was of good quality. Only one entry which I awarded CC and Best of Breed was well balanced and proportionate.

Tenterfield Terrier

Tenterfield Terriers were a very pleasing breed to judge. I had some excellent dogs in both sexes that were well balanced and proportionate in shape. The Best of Breed was a very alert square dog and proportionate in every respect. The head was wedge shaped looking from the front and in profile with nose and skull equal and in parallel places. Ears were correctly placed and carried well. Body was short, compact with a level topline. Movement was good coming and going with smooth easy side gait. Very good breed representation.

Affenpinscher

This breed was not of good quality in both sexes. CC's were not awarded. Dog class was average quality but failed to carry his tail erect and was not very confident in ring. Bitches were poor with small flat faces did not have that domed forehead. One bitch was hocked in rear when going away.

Portuguese Water Dog

The Portuguese were very good in type and proportion as a whole. Several dogs and bitches did not have correct tail carriage or well angulated rears. The Best of Breed dog was very balanced and proportionate in every respect. He had a wonderful disposition with a large well proportioned head with a strong tapering muzzle. Well angulated in all quarters with a deep body, short back, level topline with a slight croup to a correct tail set and carriage. Gait was free and easy. Very good breed type.

Shar Pei

Shar Pei were in general very good in breed type. I did have several dogs that did not have that "hippo" head but rather had a narrower muzzle. Some dogs were also very wrinkled. The Best of Breed dog had moderate wrinkles but still very loose skin. He had the correct rectangular shaped "hippo" head with correct ears. Well balanced body moderate angles front and rear. Carried himself well around the ring with a free easy propelling action. Good disposition. Very good breed type. One female puppy was very shy and tried to bite so was excused.

Shih Tzu

Shih Tzu were in general very good but I found a variety of breed types in the ring. Several dogs were large, did not have a level topline and straight fronts. I had one dog who had a VERY long muzzle. The Best of Breed dog was very well balanced and proportionate. Head was broad and rounded, short, wide muzzle and undershot mouth. Good angulation front and rear with straight legs. Body was longer than tall, short coupled and had a level topline well plumed tail set on correct and carried well over back, movement was smooth flowing showing strong rear action. He was of correct size and proportion. Good breed type.

Friday, 23 September 2005

British Bulldog

The British Bulldogs were very good in type and quality. Most dogs had very large heads, square broad jaws. There were several dogs that had teeth showing when mouth was closed. The Best of Breed dog from the open class was very typical for the breed. He had a correct head piece, good ear set high on head and used well. Body was very wide and straight in front, narrowing in rear with a roached back. He was well muscled and moved with short quick steps and had the rolling action for the breed. Very good breed type.

French Bulldog

Frenchies in general were very good in type and quality with sturdy compact, solid small dogs. There were the exception with some very large, heavy dogs and bitches with long bodies and long toplines. Toplines in general were good but many had a slope from withers to croup rather than a roached back as the standard requires. The Best of Breed dog was a sturdy compact animal had a square, broad head with a flat skull and domed forehead. He had medium sized bat ears. Body was short and cobby well muscled with correct roached back. Moderate angles in all quarters and moved free and easy. Very good breed type.

Lakeland Terrier

Lakelands were generally good. Well balanced dogs. They were not as compact as I would like to see with all dogs and bitches looking rather rangy. The Best of Breed dog had a well balanced head, flat skull, strong muzzle, dark eye, small v-shaped ear carried well. Well coupled body with good angles front and rear. Moved clean coming and going with smooth side gait.

Scottish Terrier

The Scottish Terrier's were average with some dogs being very large and heavy and would not be able to do the job they were meant to do, go to ground. Some did not have correct toplines when standing or moving. The Best of Breed dog was wheaten and best suited the standard. His head was long proportionate head. Ears set on correct and carried well. He had a short back, well muscled body level topline and deep muscular loin good angulation front and back with good movement coming and going and good smooth, free side gait.

Welsh Terrier

Welsh Terriers were not of good quality. Most dogs did not have that well balanced, compact appearance and resembled more Lakeland characteristics than the Welsh. The Best of Breed bitch best epitomized the standard with a compact appearance. She had a flat wide head with a deep powerful jaw. V-shaped ears set high and carried well. She had good angulation front and rear. Body was short, well ribbed with a strong loin. Level back, tail set on correct and carried correct. Clean movement coming and going with good side gait.

MRS AGNES GANAMI-KERTES

Thursday, 15 September 2005

Labrador Retriever

It was delightful to judge the high entry. The Labradors were of the highest quality. The quality was evenly high with many outstanding specimens. Most of the dogs combined substance and elegance. The dogs corresponded to the breed specific and thanks to the big number and the high quality it was possible to evaluate the smallest details. The Best of Breed bitch is an outstanding ambassador of her breed, a well animated beautiful yellow feminine bitch.

English Setter

A quite good number of the entered dogs showed clearly high qualities. The dogs were properly groomed, they were very showy correctly built animals. They were all excellent movers, and because of the high quality it was near impossible to select the best representatives of the breed, their general appearance, beautiful richly feathered coats and true movers. It goes without saying that the challenge dog and bitch convinced me most for their qualities in a highly competitive manner.

Irish Wolfhound

The average quality is medium. The Australian bred dog is a good representative of the breed, therefore he was selected as Best of Breed. Some of the dogs showed some timidity. They were of good size, good coats, and enough substance but lacked the distinction of a proud show dog.

Pharaoh Hound

The few exhibits in the show were very different in type and size. They lacked the grace and qualities of the breed, though they were quite correct in head and body anatomy. Even the Best of Breed bitch should be more glamorous to represent the breed. The challenge dog showed some qualities, but had a too obviously twisted tail carriage.

Friday, 16 September 2005

Beagle

I enjoyed the challenge of judging 65 beautiful beagles. The competition was very high in all classes. With a very few exceptions I would categorise the average quality "super high". When ever one looked at the scene, there were dogs of even size not too small ones and not the big ones. They had lovely heads with the soft Beagle expression, which warms the heart. All of them had good body anatomy. But still I could find some who convinced me "I am the best" and they won.

Basset Hound

34 dogs a little mixed in quality, but some outstanding specimens. Some of the dogs were strongly typed and still sound and strong movers. The Best of Breed dog represents what I am looking for in a basset hound; strong, well muscled dog, low set, but not overdone, wrinkled correctly, enough loose skin, without pulling down the eyelids, moves with good reach and thrust.

Harrier

It was a surprise to find 4 so good quality exhibits of the breed. The dogs showed type soundness and movement.

Petit Basset Griffon Vendéen

The lovely breed was represented by 11 dogs. A little mixed quality, but the Best of Breed dog is a good typical, sound, elegant dog. I would like to point out the quality of the bitch puppy. Very pleasing, sound, feminine bitch, a true mover, she was the Challenge bitch

Brittany

It was a pleasant surprise to see together 23 lovely, happy Brittany spaniel. The exhibits fitted nicely into the type, some were a little strait up in shoulders, otherwise they were well constructed, had good bones, were cobby and pleasing.

Curly Coated Retriever

Good number of high quality dogs characterised the ring. All the exhibits without any exception showed soundness, balance and good temperament. The soundness of the dogs extended also to their movement, coat quality and showiness. The Best of Breed dog represents everything what I am looking for of a high quality curly coated Retriever he is powerful without clumsiness is distinguished looking and is spectacular in movement.

Flat Coated Retriever

7 dogs all together represented this lovely breed. Not much in quantity but great in quality. This tail wagging happy dogs made happy the exhibitors, the public around and myself. The dogs showed balance, correct head and body anatomy and harmony in movement.

Large Munsterlander

4 exhibits represented the breed. In general the dogs were better than the bitches. The dogs showed soundness, good bone structure, calm temperament and good movement.

Saturday, 17 September 2005

Clumber Spaniel

Just 8 dogs were presented. They showed rather mixed quality. The Best of Breed came from the bitches. She showed balance and soundness.

English Springer Spaniel

It was a great pleasure to judge 58 lovely English Springer Spaniels. The average quality was high and even. There were very few dogs over and undersized. They fitted nicely into the standard. The heads of the dogs were well angled, in coarse or too refined heads. Most of them had well featured coats enhancing the frame of the bodies. Some were spectacular in movement. Like the Best of Breed dog and the runner up bitch. And I pointed out the outstanding quality of the puppy dog by selecting him as reserve challenge dog.

Field Spaniel

The presented 5 Dogs were very mixed in size, body strength. The Best of Breed dog is a good representation of the breed, showing strength and distinction.

Gordon Setter

Seldom and in very few places one can see 16 high quality Gordon's. From the average excellent dogs the Best of Breed dog was outstanding. He is a powerful, elegant sound dog. His frame is completed with a rich feathering and a spectacular movement. The runner up was also an excellent specimen, he was less feathered and much smaller.

Irish Water Spaniel

11 dogs all together. Some showed the correct type, they were of correct size, were well constructed, had excellent coats and showed good balanced movement. Some of the dogs were too big, high on feet and lacked good strong build up, mainly they had not enough angulations and there were not enough powerful movers.

Sussex Spaniel

Surprisingly good quality of dogs represented the breed. The Best of Breed dog and the Challenge bitch were of very high quality. They were strong well balanced dogs, moving well and showed a lot of presence.

Welsh Springer Spaniel

Only 6 exhibits. The Quality quite mediocre, those few exhibits were in type, but lacked good constructions of head, body and sound movement.

Afghan Hound

The quality of the Afghans meets my expectations. From many dogs the winners were easily selected by moving them around. The best movers were the winner dog, the Australian bred dog, the beautiful bitch and her reserve bitch, which came from the junior class. I would sum up that the breed is quite in a good state.

Golden Retriever

For a breed which enjoys nowadays high popularity the Show-dogs kept their quality. All together the 66 dogs in the showing showed qualities. Except a few were strongly built dogs, none of them showed serious faults. Some should have a more refined head (mainly among the dogs). Some dogs should have a stronger and longer croup. The dogs movement was sound with good tail carriage. The Best of Breed bitch represented all the breed specifics in the best way. She as a feminine well boned, correct body anatomy and a fine head with well pigmented nose and eye rims. The challenge dog is quite equal in quality, it was a pity that he was not properly groomed to enhance his bodylines. If he would be better groomed he could be a strong competition to the winner bitch. To sum up I found the quality very good.

Foxhound

2 grown up dogs and 3 puppies represented very well the breed. The challenge dog and the challenge bitch were impressive, sound breed typical specimens. The puppies showed also qualities as much as puppies can. The best puppy was a little stronger in bone than her competitors.

Whippet

It was a real delight to judge the Whippets in this prestigious Royal Show. The number of the exhibits and their super quality was beyond any expectations. All of the dogs (with a very few exceptions) could be a winner anywhere in the world. In many cases I regretted that there is just a first place. The dogs behind the first in their class were also very valuable specimens. I was pleased to see, that there were no big dogs in the ring, nearly all of them fitted in the standard in size. The dogs had excellently built bodies with good shoulders and good topline, nice long croups and nicely bent stifles. They moved with the typical grace of the breed continued with good ground coverage, correct hind and front movement. The Best of Breed dog and the runner up the challenge bitch showed a lot of endurance, harmony and balance. The whippet breeders can be very proud of their achievements.

German Wirehaired Pointer

The quality of the breed was not even. The only dog was very typish, but a little on the heavy side. Among the bitches I found a well balanced strong but still elegant bitch which can represent the breed well.

German Shorthaired Pointer

It was a big surprise to meet 83 G.S.P's. And more so, the quality of the breed reflected in the ring with beautiful specimens. The dogs were all evenly sized, well powered, power combined elegance and distinction. There were no too heavy or too light boned dogs, they were shortly coupled, had excellent expression and were great movers. Thanks to the even, high quality it was a pleasure to examine the smallest details and evaluate them as part of the evaluation of the dogs. I was impressed by the excellent angulations of the dogs and the well developed forechest. The good body angles resulted as strong and effortless movement.

Tuesday, 20 September 2005

Weimaraner

Super quality and good entry number characterised the Weimaraner breed. The participating dogs, all of them, were distinguished looking, glamorous and the same time thoroughly built. The dogs showed balance, harmony in movement with an excellent driving power. The dogs showed well developed forechest, excellent angulations. The heads were well chiselled, the expression proud. The movement of most of them resulted from the correct body anatomy. The Best of Breed bitch's movement was impressive, with long strides and a solid topline, tailing the others smoothly. The breeders can be proud of their dogs.

Weimaraner (Long Hair)

The presented dogs were very different in type, size and conformation. The Best of Breed bitch represents the best specimen shown at the show.

Chesapeake Bay Retriever

The only bitch shown was too small for the breed, had not enough characteristics of the breed and was not in show condition, so the challenge certificate was withheld.

Lagotto Romagnolo

From the 2 puppies presented I cannot draw any conclusion regarding the breed. The presented puppies were very different in type. The puppy which won the class was well built, but the coat was fluffy and not typical to the breed for the moment.

Nova Scotia Duck Tolling Retriever

1 dog and 2 bitches were entered. The dog showed typically, and soundness, the bitches were very different in size and did not show good body anatomy and coat quality.

Irish Setter

The Irish setters gave a wonderful spectacle to the showground, they were flying around the ring with their spectacular coats. The dogs showed combination of good substance and elegance. I was impressed by the even size of the dogs, there were no too big ones, neither too small lightly boned dog. I would like to point out the excellent front of the dogs, they had well set breastbones, good width of and depth of the ribcage, they had well angulated shoulder and combined with the strongly angulated hindquarters the dogs could show strong stride with a proud fluid carriage. The nice feathering completed and enhanced the beauty of the dogs. I would like to convey my appreciation to the breeders for their wonderful results.

Ibizan Hound

4 dogs represented well the breed. 3 dogs of good quality were in the showing. The one bitch, who went to Best of Breed showed particularly high quality.

Thursday, 22 September 2005

Pointer

The number of the dogs in the ring was disappointing. Just 10 dogs from such an important breed. Because of the small number of entries, no conclusion can be summarized regarding the breed. Some excellent representative were selected for Challenge dog and bitch and Best of Breed.

Italian Spinone

The dogs in the show ring were correct in type, they were strong well sized dogs. Their coats were not in optimal condition and they should show more distinction all together.

Cocker Spaniel (American)

The presented dogs were most in black colour. The dogs showed good quality. In general they were correctly sized, good substance and good body anatomy. They expressed themselves very well in movement, merry, fluent, smooth tail wagging movement characterized the scene.

Deerhound

The 14 entered dogs into the show were good representations of the breed. They meet the standard in height, coat texture and expression. The topline were correctly arched in loins, some had telling croups. I could easily find my winner dogs, they were the stronger ones, with correct topline and movement.

Greyhound

The entered dogs number is too small to enable the evaluation for the status of the breed. The presented dogs were of good type, they showed soundness and elegance.

Saluki

The scene of the salukis, like anywhere in the world, there were dogs of different sizes, some tall, others small, but all fit into the standard. The dogs showed in general type and soundness and good character. The dogs definitely were aristocratic looking with high breed carriage. They were sound movers and were well outlined.

Borzoi

Excellent entry of 4 Borzois. The average quality is very good with some really outstanding sound dogs. The dogs showed good size, good bones, they were well outlined. Most of them had good topline with strong long croups. Very few had really nice featherings, so essential to enhance the beauty of the Borzoi. They had typical springy movement and showed good coverage.

Friday, 23 September 2005

Hungarian Vizsla

I was impressed what a big breed the Hungarian Vizsla is in Australia. Good number of high quality dogs characterized the ring. Without any exception the heads were correct. The dogs had a good conformation. There were some differences in the size. Some smaller dogs and some bigger bitches, though they were all within the limits of the standard. The dogs showed harmony in movement and proved breed outgoing character.

Rhodesian Ridgeback

The entry number was very good, as well the average quality. The dogs were in correct type, there were not too big dogs, but some lacked a little of substance, mainly in the younger dogs. The ridges were faultless, the heads and the expression of the dogs were true Rhodesians. A common weakness in breed is the shoulder angulation, but this fault is not in a big numbers. Some should have more forechest. The dogs were excellent movers, fluent with good elasticity. The winner dog and bitch, both represent the breed in the most complete way. They are powerful without being coarse, they have all excellent body anatomy and they were spectacular in standing and in movement. Then the younger dogs the junior bitch was selected as runner up bitch thanks to the harmony of her body and movement.

Basset Fauve de Bretagne

The only bitch of the breed shows high type and quality. She is correctly sized, has excellent coat, and moves with legs in front and behind.

Hamiltonstovare

The 3 dogs in the ring were of good type and they were strong well built dogs and smooth movers. Correct coat colour.

MRS LIZBETH CAMPBELL

Thursday, 15 September 2005

Pug

96 entries, very good types, overall good bodies, topline and movement. A few problems are light eyes, narrow nostrils and sooty colour (Eyes and colour seems to follow each other) Temperaments were excellent. My two best dogs and bitches might successfully compete anywhere in the world. Thanks to all the exhibitors for showing me all these nice dogs!

Japanese Chin

12 dogs were shown under me. Coat textures were excellent - so were the temperaments. Shoulders and angulations could improve. Best of Breed is one of the best I ever have seen. Construction, topline, neck carriage, head and movement were out-standing.

Friday, 16 September 2005

Dachshund (Smooth Haired)

23 dogs. Mostly nice heads and expressions - but under jaws could be better. Some lacked coat on ears. Good movement on most dogs. Temperament could have been stronger the Best of Breed was very nice with carriage, neck and movement.

Dachshund (Min. Smooth Haired)

20 dogs of very good types. Expressions could be better on some. Nice bodies, good shoulders. Upper arms were to short on a few. Good tail sets and rear movement overall. Nice temperament

Dachshund (Wire Haired)

7 dogs with nice heads - good expressions. Some coats were too soft. My winner had correct coat texture, nice movement, good carriage and neck - so had reserve Best of Breed, all the temperaments were lovely.

Dachshund (Min. Wire)

5 dogs of uneven quality. Toplines and movement could have been better. Coat texture was very good. So were the temperaments. Best of Breed had very good proportions - beautiful head and expression - and moved really nicely.

Dachshund (Long Haired)

13 dogs of good types. Some could have had a better underjaw. A few had short upper arm and weak postures. Shoulders were good. Coat quality very good on almost all. Temperaments very nice

Dachshund (Min. Long Haired)

17 dogs. Very good types nice heads/expressions, good shoulders. Most dogs were nicely built and moved well, but some could have had a little more confidence - but was easy to handle. Best of Breed was a very nice Mini Long Haired Dachshund.

Saturday, 17 September 2005*Chinese Crested Dog

51 Chinese Crested of the best quality I have ever seen. The hall and noise was not the best circumstances for showing, and a few lost a higher placement because of tail carriage. I could see it was reaction to what happened in the neighbour ring. Nice heads - excellent necks!! Superb chests. Some could have had better skin, but overall it was OK. Like elsewhere in the world quite a few were up to size. Temperament was outstanding compared to what have seen earlier!!

Griffon Bruxellois

32 entries. As usual they varied a lot. Some were too long. Some had short upper arm and straight shoulder. But heads/monkey faces were very good - excellent on most. Nice coat texture. My winner and runner up were of outstanding quality. All had wonderful temperament.

Pekingese

34 entries of very good dogs. Good expression on many. Tight nostrils was a major problem. Loose elbows and falling down in front was another. Coats were excellent, temperaments beautiful. Best of Breed and runner up were sound, had correct bodyshape - moved nice and were of excellent quality.

Pomeranian

28 Pomeranians, varying a great deal in quality. Nice expressions and good coats on most. Fronts and rear angulations (knees) could be better. They had good bodies and tail set. I would like better bone on some. The Best of Breed was a nice dog. Sound and of excellent type and size. Runner up bitch had very good coat texture, but was out of coat. She had the best movement of them all. Temperaments were fine.

Sunday, 18 September 2005*Cocker Spaniel

56 entries of excellent types. Very nice heads and expressions. But - the breed standard calls explicitly for: "Jaws strong with a perfect, regular and complete scissor bite, i.e. Upper teeth closely overlapping lower teeth and set square to the jaws." Hopefully the owners and breeders do not close their eyes to this problem, otherwise it would be detrimental to the breed. The dogs had better shoulders and fronts than the bitches. Side movement and angulation was very nice - so were most backs. Temperament was superb except for one. Coat texture and trimming excellent - it was quite a few "artworks". Best of Breed - a bit on the heavy side - but his head, mouth, neck, shoulder, upper arm, back and movement was a spaniel worthy. His coat texture was superb - so was his temperament. Runner up lost a little in front - but had everything else.

Monday, 19 September 2005*Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

72 entries excellent types. Mostly very good heads and expression. Watch out - quite a few had level bites. Backs could have been stronger - some lacked muscles, and needed more exercise. Wonderful temperaments on all. My winners and quite a few young ones were very nice indeed.

King Charles Spaniel

8 entries. The dogs varied a lot in type and size. Expression, tongue out, movement and coat texture in the males made me hold back the Challenge. The bitch was sweet - nice head and she moved like a King Charles should. Very nice type.

Chihuahua (Smooth)

28 entries. Very nice dogs. Teeth/bite could be better, expressions good on most - very good on a few. Ears and ear set varied a lot. Good chest and good bodies on most. Some low on leg. They might have been in better conditions and have more confidence and contact with the handler. The otter tails that is so special to the breed were predominant. Best of Breed was a beautiful, proud boy, excellent! Runner up Best of Breed was a fantastic old girl - beautiful construction. Congratulations to my winners!

Chihuahua (Long)

44 entries of varied types. Excellent heads - bites could be better, so could ears and ear placement. Good chests - high front movements. Many of the dogs lacked confidence and were out of condition. They did not show their best. The "otter tail" was present on quite a few - coats were good. And my Best of Breed was very nice indeed.

Tuesday, 20 September 2005*Keeshond

45 entries of excellent dogs. Some could have had darker eye. Most ears were good. Colours varied. Good bodies and movement on most. Temperaments were excellent on all.

Bichon Frise

5 dogs of good quality. Best of Breed stood out - he could win anywhere in the world.

19 nice dogs. Quite a few up to size. Very good heads and bodies. Movement and muscles could be better - they lacked condition. Best of Breed was of excellent type and size.

Maltese

14 entries. Superb heads! Fronts could have been better. Short upper arm on some. Very strong backs. Excellent coats. Best of Breed stood out - and the reserve a beautiful construction.

Wednesday, 21 September 2005*Papillon

61 entries of the best Papillons I have ever seen. Fronts were a problem - actually the best front and movements of them all - was on the puppy. Best of Breed and reserve were excellent in type and size - so were quite a few others. Temperaments were absolutely fantastic!

Tibetan Spaniel

16 entries of varied quality. Bites and lack of teeth was a major problem. Condition thought to have been better on most. It showed on backs and movement Best of Breed and reserve were excellent types - and very nice dogs.

Rottweiler

19 entries of excellent quality. Short upper arm, straight shoulder and soft topline were a problem. Very nice head and expression. Nice side movement on all. Temperaments true to type.

Friday, 23 September 2005*Poodle (Toy)

30 entries of varying type and size. Quite a few were far too big. Excellent heads with very strong underjaw and nice expression. Fronts were a major problem. Straight shoulder or/and short upper arm caused loose or hackney movement in front. Coat texture was very good - but some were not dipped to their advantage. Best of Breed and reserve stood out as exhibits with elegant carriage excellent movement and as correct "toy types".

Poodle (Standard)

22 entries of different type and size. Quite a few had long enough heads - but they could have been better chiselled and had better "Poodle expression". Nice, long necks but fronts were a major problem on almost all. Straight shoulder and/or short upper arm caused loose or hackneyed movement in front. Some had unnatural pigmentation on nose and even on skin. Very good coat texture. Nice carriage and rear movement - Beautiful temperament. Best of Breed was superb - so was reserve. They stood out!

Poodle (Miniature)

19 entries of varying quality. Very nice heads and expression and strong under jaw. Fronts were a major problem. They were either to straight in shoulder or with a to short upper arm causing hackney or loose movement in front, coat texture was very good - but some were not clipped to their advantage Best of Breed stood out. She was 100% Poodle!!

Mr Ralf Campbell*Thursday, 15 September 2005*Australian Cattle Dog

52 entries. I was really impressed with the overall high quality of the exhibits, both as far as conformation and movement was concerned. On the whole heads were true to type, bodies were sound and well proportioned with good toplines and excellent croup. Just a few were too long in the back. The Best of Breed was a winner in every sense of the word.

Australian Kelpie

Generally speaking the 27 entries were of excellent quality. Although type and size varied in some classes they were all thoroughly sound and good movers. Heads and expression were typical. My winners displayed excellent conformation and temperament, true to type and size varied in some classes they were all thoroughly sound and good movers. Heads and expression were typical.

Australian Shepherd

30 entries. On the whole they were of very good quality with excellent outline and movement. However, some were lacking in head and expression. The quality of the bitches was higher and more even than the males, and the winner outstanding, but of all classes open dogs stood out. Extremely high quality! The winner Best of Breed was superb! Fantastic movement!

Pyrenean Mastiff

One entry. A very young dog which shows a lot of promise but needs time to mature.

Pyrenean Mountain Dog

10 entries. Type varied. Some were too heavily built with slightly too massive heads. The two junior bitches were of correct type and had actually the best conformation, but isn't to Best of Breed which was a better mover.

Friday, 16 September 2005*Bearded Collie

Schnauzer (Min.)

68 entries. Very good quality on the whole, and the class winners were of excellent type displaying correct size, head, body, coat texture, colour and movement. However, there was some that varied in type. Heads could have better expression and backs could be shorter and stronger. I was very pleased with both Best of Breed and runner up Best of Breed, excellent specimens!

Schnauzer (Giant)

19 entries - the majority of very good type and size. Heads were correct with good expression, but some exhibits could have better fronts, a straighter toplines and more efficient movement. Both the Best of Breed and runner up Best of Breed stood out as excellent representatives of the breed.

Schnauzer

54 entries of excellent quality, good heads and expression true to type. Some, however, were too long in the back and had too soft coat texture, which deprived them of a better placing. The competition for Best of Breed was very stiff. Both Best of Breed and runner up Best of Breed winner's were excellent representations of the breed.

Black Russian Terrier

13 entries of generally very good type and conformation. Typical heads and bodies. Good bone and angulation. Some loose fronts, and movement could be more efficient. The Best of Breed stood out from some excellent competitions.

Saturday, 17 September 2005*Siberian Husky

The majority of the 74 entries were of excellent type. Quite a few were up to size. Heads were so typical! Bodies on the whole were well constructed, but flat and short croup, short and straight upper arm, overweight and inefficient movement deprived many exhibits of a better placing. The competition for the CCs was very stiff and Best of Breed one of the best I have seen for a long time.

I was impressed with the high quality of the 70 entries. They varied in size but conformation was excellent. Heads and expression true to type, well constructed bodies with good front, topline, croup and tail carriage. Some could have stronger bone. It is rare to have so many top exhibits to choose between.

92 entries. All the way from Minor Puppy to Open Class the exhibits displayed incredibly high quality - dogs and bitches were equally good. In the show ring I have never experienced anything like it. Heads and expression were so typical. Beautiful necks and toplines, good shoulder placement, excellent croup and tail carriage, strong bone, good angulation, efficient movement, correct coat texture and temperament true to type. Alaskan Malamute

62 entries of varying type and conformation. The majority displayed excellent heads - the dogs were masculine, the females feminine - but there were quite a few with too light eyes and uneven bites. Some bodies were too rangy while others were too long or too heavy. Some with poor angulation. On the whole bitches were of better quality than the males. Among the latter the younger classes were superior to their seniors. Best of Breed was a beautiful bitch, so true to type. The runner up Best of Breed was of equally top quality but just needs time to mature.

Friday, 23 September 2005*Samoyed

Among the 79 entries - which by and large were of very good quality - especially the younger classes stood out. Almost without exception heads were excellent. They were well chiselled with small ears and displaying the typical Samoyed "smile". However, there were some light eyes. Excellent necks, some weak toplines, correct set on of tail as well as tail carriage. Quite a few were too low on their legs while others had a too heavy body. There were some straight shoulders, but too little angulation in stifle and hock was a bigger problem. Some open coats. Movement on the whole was very good. Best of Breed was an excellent specimen.

Maremma Sheepdog

The 10 entries varied in size - some rather small - but of very good quality. The exhibits had well chiselled heads with expression true to type, good necks and toplines. Some could have stronger bone. Well placed croups and correct tail carriage. Rear movement could be more efficient. Very good coat and colour.
