Mr MARK O'SULLIVAN

RASV CEO

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV), in conjunction with Federation University Australia, is pleased to present the 22nd Australian International Beer Awards (AIBA), a celebration of beer and brewing excellence in the Asia Pacific region.

The AIBA gives brewers the opportunity to benchmark their beers against international industry standards; seek advice from an independent panel of experts; promote and market award-winning products using the AIBA's seal of approval.

In 2014, the AIBA received a record 1,560 entries from more than 294 brewers from 31 countries. The diverse range of styles were assessed by an expert panel of 40 judges during a week of judging at Melbourne Showgrounds.

This year we welcomed Warren Pawsey as our Interim Head Judge who brought his global knowledge and industry experience, and we thank him for taking on the role.

Judges from across Australia were joined by internationals from China, Vietnam, New Zealand, Belgium, Ireland, Canada and the United States who came together to assess beers and award the medal and trophy winners.

The RASV is committed to taking into consideration feedback and input from the brewing community to ensure that the AIBA competition reflects the modern landscape of brewing and has judging processes that ensure fairness and consistency across all categories.

For the first time this year the AIBA included a Media Award, sponsored by The Crafty Pint, to recognise Australia's top media talent specialising in beer and brewing.

The AIBA could not be a success without the contribution of hundreds of people across a wide variety of organisations.

Thank you to our panel of judges who donated their time and expertise to benchmark and provide valuable feedback to a wide range of entries; to our stewards and support staff; to Federation University Australia for its continued support as our event partner; to our sponsors and to the media for embracing and promoting the Awards and finally to our exhibitors who support the Awards by putting beers forward for industry peer based assessment.

We would also like to thank our AIBA Industry Advisory Group who have provided valuable guidance on the direction of the Awards throughout the year.

Thank you also to Chief Steward Craig Bowen and our Epicure team for their hard work and commitment to the AIBA.

Report on this year's awards by

Mr WARREN PAWSEY

AIBA Head Judge

I wish to thank the RASV for inviting me to participate in the 2014 AIBA as Interim Head Judge. It was a great privilege.

Having judged in numerous beer competitions over the last 20 years in Australia and internationally I was excited by the opportunity to lead the assembled panel of 40 judges over the five days of judging. While some people might describe judging a beer competition as a dream come true, in reality it requires sustained concentration and the ability to accurately taste, describe and discuss aroma and flavour attributes with your fellow judges.

The assembled judging panel for 2014 came from a diverse mix of backgrounds and experience. Many of the judges are themselves brewers and/or industry professionals who volunteer their time to objectively assess beers against the industry guidelines and to provide constructive feedback. The intended aim of the judge's feedback is to raise the level of quality we deliver to our customers.

As in previous years, the judging panel also included a number of associate judges who actively participated in the process so that we continue to grow our pool of experienced judges locally. I thank all the judges for their time and their contribution in making 2014 AIBA the internationally recognised event it has become.

For those brewers who submitted their beers for judging, I can assure you that your beers were treated with respect, individually assessed, evaluated professionally, blind and without bias. The feedback from the judges will be constructive and I hope you find our comments useful and actionable.

I would like to acknowledge the hard work and passion of the RASV team and also thank the stewards, back of house team and all the people who volunteered their time to make the 2014 AIBA a truly fantastic event.

Congratulations to the RASV and the AIBA Industry Advisory Group on another successful AIBA!

Cheers,

The winners of the 2013 AIBA Australian Champion Brewery Trophies – Carlton & United Breweries (Champion Large Brewery), Feral Brewing Company (Champion Medium Brewery) and 2 Brothers Brewery (Champion Small Brewery), have joined together to create a limited edition collaboration beer, 'Land of Plenty'.

Jaideep Chandraskharan (CUB), Brendan Varis (Feral) and Andrew Ong (2 Brothers) (pictured L-R) oversaw the creation of this specially brewed kellerbier, an unfiltered lager which debuted at the 2014 AIBA Presentation

Dinner, followed by an appearance on a feature tap at the Great Australian Beer SpectAPular during Good Beer Week, and at the Good Beer Week Closing Party.

In another first, Land of Plenty will have longevity beyond the awards and a far greater consumer reach with bottles of the lager available for purchase through select retail outlets.

Special thanks to the 2014 AIBA collaboration beer sponsors: Labelmakers Group, Hop Products Australia, Cryermalt, & Barrett Burston Malting.
