AN AXEMAN LOOKS BACK WITH PRIDE

My interest in Woodchopping started about 1969 at the annual Police Picnic when a work mate walked past me an with axe in his hand. From that day and with some coaching he entered me in the Police Chops at the Royal Melbourne Show. Ever since I have been a captive to competition chopping. I guess not only was it a very personal desire to master the sport, if that is possible, but also I was amongst a group of men who were dedicated to their sport.

Not long after this, around 1972, the Woodchopping Chairman Mr John Gardiner, asked if I would be a Judge at the Royal Show Chops that I accepted with great pleasure. Starting off in the Ring was a great experience and where I met axemen from all over Australia and New Zealand. Being borne with the "gift of the gab", not only did I learn the sport but made many life-long friends. Sadly over the years many have moved on and with them went their experiences in the arena and the history of our great Australian sport. In the Judges box I have worked with many dedicated Councillors and Judges who have given freely many hundreds of hours of their time to make the sport the success it is.

Over the years I have seen many changes at the Show and possibly the best has been the introduction of Video judging and the formation of the Disputes Committee, the latter in which disputes are assessed by their fellow competitors. For myself, the culmination and success of the 1985 Royal Show International Woodchopping Festival, where we had forty overseas axemen attending, was a great credit to all the active participants, the Woodchop Committee, Judges and Stewards. In addition was the assistance given by the Show Society when I organised two Axemen's Tours to the United Kingdom. To be able to take sixteen men and their wives, to see the reception by the English to those wonderful sportsmen, was a truly remarkable and rewarding experience.

I personally believe that comradeship in the arena whether win, lose or draw is unique and as such should make the Australian Axemen truly proud of themselves and their sport.

In 1980 I was awarded the Royal Show President's Gold medal for services to the Show and our sport. For me this was an honour indeed. Again this year to be made an Honorary Life Member of the Royal Agricultural Society is indeed something my family and myself are exceedingly proud of. Health holding good, I hope I may be amongst you for many years to follow.
